

BYLAWS OF SWEH HOMESCHOOL GROUP

ARTICLE I:

Name

Springfield Well Educated Heart (SWEH)

ARTICLE II:

Mission Statement

Springfield Well-Educated Heart (SWEH) is a homeschool co-operation for families committed to building community, a place for lasting and wholesome friendships to form, where lifelong learning is developed in both parents and children, and diversity is valued for the richness it lends to our collective experience. SWEH couples this community with the study of the fine arts and nature study as a primary tool to develop lifelong learners. (Amended July 2022)

ARTICLE III:

Offerings

1. SWEH provides enrichment activities which utilize nature study and the arts which include storytelling, artwork, music, poetry. The subject content is chosen from the SWEH resources library and the rotation schedule.
  - a) Activities include nature study, choir, playing instruments, plays or impromptu theater, dances, note booking sessions, poetry tea times, making crafts, listening to stories, telling stories, talent shows, instruction in drawing, painting, nature journaling or knitting, writing workshops, math workshops, book discussions, games, service activities, field trips, gardening, and art and music appreciation.
  - b) SWEH utilizes a rotation schedule as a guide for activities and the yearly schedule. The rotation schedule is a 9-month course of study that involves the whole world and various topics of nature. The entire library and the resources we will use in this group can be found at <https://springfieldwelleducatedheart.org/>
  - c) Other activity offerings and resources may be added subject to President approval. Once there is a minimum of 10 families participating in SWEH, this responsibility shifts to the Board.

(Amended July 2022)

2. Annual Planning Meeting: An Annual Planning Meeting will be provided in the month of July prior to the school year to discuss and plan the activities provided in the year. Parental involvement for the class will be discussed at this meeting as well. All mothers with children involved in SWEH must attend the Annual Planning Meeting.
3. Mothers Meetings: Additionally, monthly meetings exclusively for mothers are held. At these meetings we discuss wholesome books, homeschool philosophy, and family culture. These meetings are meant to uplift, strengthen, and inspire. At times, the needs of the group are discussed at these meetings. Mothers Meetings are also open to friends searching out homeschooling options and are for the purpose of enriching and supporting the homeschool educator.

4. Childcare: While mothers mentor classes childcare may be provided by other mothers participating in SWEH on a volunteer basis.
5. Field Trips: Various field trips are offered throughout the year. The entire family is invited and encouraged to attend field trips. A Field Trip Committee plans and executes the field trips. Mothers interested in serving SWEH in this capacity should indicate so through the Position of Interest Form.
6. Parties: Various parties are offered throughout the year. The entire family is invited and encouraged to attend parties. A Party Committee plans and executes the parties. Mothers interested in serving SWEH in this capacity should indicate so through the Position of Interest Form.

ARTICLE IV: Membership

1. A mother must be an active member of SWEH for her children to participate in any of the group's activities.
2. An active member means being involved as best as their personal circumstances allow. At a minimum mothers should be involved in the activities in which their children participate. She should make herself available to serve any other needs SWEH may have for optimal functionality.
3. A mother may be exempt from participating in an activity on a case-by-case basis only and only at the discretion of the sitting SWEH President.
4. It is asked that SWEH mothers participate in a committee or on the Board. All mothers should fill out a Position of Interest Form and submit it with a completed Family Info Sheet at the July Annual Planning Meeting. Both forms are provided online at springfieldwelleducatedheart.org/bylaws. If she does not turn in a Position of Interest Form, a position will be appointed to her. (Amended November 2021)
5. Meeting with the president is required before admittance to SWEH. (Amended November 2021)
6. Attendance at the July Annual Planning Meeting and attendance at a minimum of one Mothers Meeting during the year (August-May). (Amended November 2021)
7. SWEH may need to enforce a limit of how many families join depending on the year or other extenuating circumstances.

ARTICLE V: Code of Behavior

1. Students must be respectful to their mentors and their rules.
